Our Whole Lives (OWL) is a comprehensive lifespan sexuality education curriculum.

OWL is values based but not sectarian. OWL is suitable for use by secular teachers as well as religious educators from many faiths.

OWL values emphasize the equality and dignity of all people regardless of gender, gender identity, sex, and sexual orientation, as well as age, ability, racial, and cultural differences.

OWL lessons are age appropriate. Elementary OWL provides a strong ethical foundation for children from Kindergarten to 6th grade.

A few elementary lesson topics: families, bodies, communication, privacy, friendship skills, and respecting self and others.

OWL considers parents a child's primary sexuality educators. Elementary OWL facilitators learn to work closely with parents.

Training Sponsored by The Greater New Orleans Unitarian Universalist Cluster.
Training for OWL facilitators of older youth and adults will be coming soon.
